

The scaffolding and caution tape in church today remind us that we're all works in progress. Jesus the Mother Hen (Luke 13:31-35) longs to give us love, support and protection. Are we willing?

